Learn about:

Effective economic development requires regional cooperation and collaboration with all neighbouring communities. This webinar will provide a foundation for building strong relationships between Aboriginal communities and local governments to realize mutually beneficial economic development opportunities. This workshop is designed to help facilitate relationship building through:

- Comparing the differences in opportunities for Local Government and Aboriginal economic development
- Providing Local Governments a perspective on the Aboriginal economic development context
- Strategies for determining mutual priorities and working together effectively
- Building strong relationships based on trust and respect

About the series:

This webinar is part of a series tailored specifically to local leaders in B.C.

Future Sessions include:

- Economic Development 101 - March 9th
- Smart Economic Development with the Strategic Planning and Performance Measurement Toolkits - March 16th
