

LOCAL GOVERNMENT LEADERSHIP ACADEMY Update

June 12, 2007

LGLA WEBSITE LAUNCHED

VISIT THE OFFICIAL WEBSITE OF THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT LEADERSHIP ACADEMY AT WWW.LGLA.CA. Here you'll find information about the Academy – its foundations, its mission, LGLA partner organizations, board members, staff contacts, and other details. Also look for LGLA Updates and other communications as well as upcoming event, course and program notices and useful educational resources.

We hope you will use the site to keep up-to-date on the activities of the Academy and we encourage you to stay tuned as the lgla.ca evolves into a comprehensive, online professional development resource for local government and First Nations elected officials and senior staff.

An LGLA Program Manager is now in place, and we will be developing the ongoing curriculum of the Academy over the summer months. The website will be a key tool in providing information on the long-term activities of the LGLA as well as periodic updates on our progress with the curriculum.

VISIT www.lgla.ca OFTEN AND STAY ENGAGED IN THE LGLA INITIATIVE AS IT UNFOLDS!
